

About Our Organization

The International Martial Arts Council of America (IMAC) is an organization dedicated to serving martial artists in all corners of the world. Created by martial artists for martial artists,

IMAC is an open martial arts organization offering support to all martial artists regardless of style or system.

IMAC is not a political organization, but rather a reference and support organization for the millions of martial artists of the world.

Our mission is to help improve the martial arts and support those that dedicate their lives to teaching and training.

Each year IMAC hosts one of the largest most diverse martial arts camps in the United States.

This National Training Camp draws martial artists from all over to train with some of the best instructors in the world. This event is a yearly celebration of the mission of IMAC.

International Martial Arts Headfounders Grandmasters Council

The Council is made up of 8th, 9th and 10th Degree Black Belts of various styles and systems. The Council oversees rank testing and promotions. Guidelines are set and followed by the Council.

Rank certificates are presented to newly promoted Black Belts with the Council Members signatures on them. Testing and promotions are held once a year at our National Training Camp.

The members of the Grandmasters Council are appointed by the current members of the Council and approved by the Chief Director of the Council.

United States Martial Arts Hall of Fame

The United States Martial Arts Hall of Fame is held in conjunction with the National Training Camp,

The Hall of Fame is a black tie affair to honor the hard working martial artists for their commitment and dedication to the arts.

IMAC Members and former Hall of Fame inductees include Bill "Superficer" Wallace, Fumio Demura, Frank Shamrock, Fusesi Kise, Carlos Machado, Paul Vunak, Thomas Mitese, Richard Bustillo, Ren Pierce, Wally Jay, "Jude" Gene LeBell, Masaki Hatsumi, Mark Shuey Sr. and many other great artists.
